Physics is a challenging subject for students well-versed in chemistry and in mathematics.

Youthful chemists become learned in the science dealing with the composition and properties of substances, and with the reactions by which substances are produced from or converted into other substances.

Learning the chemical properties, composition, reactions, and uses of a substance according to the principles of chemistry presents a challenge to the serious minded chemistry student.

In tribute to John Fitzgerald Kennedy

35th President of the United States of America, 1917-1963

His ideals and his aspirations expressed in his inaugural address:

"We observe today not a victory of party but a celebration of freedom, symbolizing an end as well as a beginning, signifying renewal as well as change. Let the word go forth from this time and place to friend and foe alike that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans born in this country, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of their ancient heritage and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed and to which we are committed today at home and around the world."

"Let every nation know, whether it wishes us well or ill, that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardships, support any friend, oppose any foe, to assure the survival and the success of liberty."

"Let both sides unite to heed in all corners of the earth the command of Isaiah to undo the heavy burdens and let the oppressed go free. All this will not be finished in the first 100 days, nor will it be finished in the first 1000 days, nor in the life of this administration, nor even perhaps in our lifetime on this planet."

"But let us begin."

"In your hands my fellow citizens, more than mine, will rest the final success or failure of our course. Since this country was founded, each generation of Americans has been summoned to give testimony to its national loyalty. The graves of young Americans who answered the call to service surround the globe. Now the trumpet summons us again - not as a call to bear arms, though arms we need; not as a call to battle, though embattled we are; but a call to bear the burden of a long twilight struggle, year in and year out, 'rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation,' a struggle against the common enemies of man; Tyranny, poverty, disease, and war itself."

"In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility, I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it - and the glow from that fire can truly light the world."

"And so, my fellow Americans, ask not what your country can do for you. Ask what you can do for your country. With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help but knowing that here on earth God's work must be truly our own."

"...let
us
go
forth
to lead
the land
we love

...knowing
that
here
on earth
God's
work
must be truly
our own."
